The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday October 4. to Tuesday October 7. 1712.

Windsor, October 5.

THE following Address from the Burgh of Aberbrothock, was presented to Her Majesty by William Lewingstone, Esq; their Representative in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Magistrates, Counsellors, and others, Inhabitants of Your Antient and Loyal Burgh of Aberbrothock, in the County of Angus, which was ever signaliz'd for its eminent Loyalty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WITH equal Humility and Gratitude, we most cheerfully desire to join in the universal Joy and loud Acclamations of all Your Loyal Subjects, for the blessed Prospect Your Majesty has given us of an approaching Peace, (most honourable to Your Majesty, and highly advantageous both as to Your People's Freedom, and extention and enlargement of Trade) even while we were languishing and groaning under the Calamities of a long War, which as it was entail'd on Your Majesty, so it has been attended with a vast profusion of Treasure and Blood.

But as Your Majesty's Armies have triumph'd Abroad in Military Glory, so we trust Your Prudence, Clemency, and Meekness will Charm the Spirit of Dissention at Home; Your Authority and Power will suppress the malicious Efforts of covetous, ambitious and self-designing Men, who take Pleasure to confound and embarrass all Affairs that they may, with more Advantage, fish in troubled Waters.

Madam, may Your Majesty happily put a final and speedy Period to these great Affairs: May You live long to reap the glory, and the comfortable Fruits and Effects of all Your great and good Works: May Your Throne be still attended by a faithful Ministry, fearing God, and hating Covetousness, and having nothing so much in their Hearts and View, as the Glory of God, the Peace of the Church, the Honour of Your Majesty, the Good and Comfort of Your Subjects, together with the Quiet and Tranquility of all Your Majesty's Dominions.

May the God of Peace establish, in Righteousness, Your Throne (the Right of which is owing to the Almighty only): May Your Reign be prosperous, and Your Days many: May Truth and Peace flourish in Your Time; and when Your Majesty is full of Days, Your exchange may then be of a Temporal for an Eternal Crown: These are, and shall be ever, the sincere and ardent Prayers of, May it please Your Majesty, Your Majesty's most faithful, most loyal, and most obedient Subjects and Servants.

The following Address from the Corporation of East Lowe, was presented to Her Majesty by William Hedges, Esq; in the absence of Sir Henry Seymour, being introduced by the Rt. Hon. Mr. Vice Chamberlain.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Magistrates, Freemen and Inhabitants of Your Majesty's Corporation of East Lowe, in the County of Cornwall.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE cannot sufficiently acknowledge Your Majesty's great Goodness and Condescension in communicating to Your Parliament, the Terms on which an honourable Peace may be obtained for Great Britain and all Your Majesty's Allies; and it is with the greatest Satisfaction we behold Your Majesty's Zeal for securing the Protestant Succession in the Illustrious House of Hanover.

Wherefore, with Hearts full of all Duty and Gratitude, we humbly presume to approach Your Royal Person, beseeching Your Majesty, for the Prosperity and Advantage of all Your Subjects, to hasten the perfecting of that glorious Work Your Majesty hath so happily begun, and so far advanced.

That Your Majesty may soon accomplish it, and that Your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous, and Your Kingdoms again flourish in Trade and Commerce; is the hearty Prayer of, most gracious Sovereign, Your Majesty's most Obedient and most Loyal and Dutiful Subjects.

The following Address from the Corporation of Lydd, was presented to Her Majesty by John Elliston, Esq; being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl Poulett, Lord Steward of Her Majesty's Houshold.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and unanimous Address of the Bailiff, Jurats, Town-Clerk, Commoners, and other Gentlemen and Inhabitants of the Town and Corporation of Lydd, in the County of Kent.

May it please Your Majesty,

IN all Humility, we Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, humbly beg leave to express our just Acknowledgments of Your Majesty's great unparallel'd Goodness and Condescension in communicating to the Parliament, the Terms on which a general Peace may be made, for the Advantage and Security of Your Majesty's own Subjects, and of all Your Allies; and for the great Care Your Majesty has been pleased to take, in securing the Protestant Succession in the Illustrious House of Hanover.

Such a Peace must needs be preferable to the most just War. Nothing therefore can be more surprizing and disagreeable to us, That since the Parliament, by their Address, and Thanks for Your Majesty's wise Conduct, and unwearied Zeal for the good of all Your Subjects, there should still remain any who may seem to dislike Your Majesty's Proceedings: But we hope and beseech Your Majesty, that You will please to finish that great and good Work You have so happily begun, and soon put a Period to that War which hath been continued at the Expence of so much Blood and Treasure.

May therefore a War, so Wasting and Expensive, cease, and the glad Tidings of Peace succeed. And that Your Majesty's Reign may flourish in a long and uninterrupted Enjoyment of it, are the hearty Prayers of Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

The following Address from the Town of Guilford, was presented to Her Majesty by the Mayor of that Town, accompanied with Morgan Randyll, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Northumberland.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, and approved Men of the Town of Guilford, in the County of Surry.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects do, in a most humble manner, acknowledge Your Majesty's most gracious Condescension, in communicating to Your Parliament, the Terms on which a Peace may be had.

We are filled with Joy, at the very dawning of Peace, after so long and tedious a War; and our Joy is extreamly heightned, when we have an Assurance from Your Majesty, that the Terms are such as are Honourable and Just to Your Allies, as well as Advantageous to Your Own Kingdoms.

We abhor all those unreasonable Men that delight to continue War, when a safe, honourable, and lasting Peace may be had.

The Assurance Your Majesty has given to us, of Your Care in the Succession of the most Illustrious House of Hanover, is most Delightful to us; and we do, in a particular manner, acknowledge Your Majesty's great Goodness to us in that respect.

And we most earnestly pray, that this great and glorious Work which Your Majesty hath so auspiciously begun, may be soon accomplished, and brought to an happy Conclusion; and that Your Majesty may long live to enjoy the Benefit thereof.

Which Addresses Her Majesty received very graciously.

Copenhagen, Oct. 4. N. S. We have received advice, that the Swedes have landed some Forces in the Isle of Rugen: Their Number is not yet exactly known, but it is said, they consist of 8000 Foot, and that the Cavalry is not yet arrived. On the 2d Instant, an Express brought an Account, that his Majesty's Fleet was come to the Gulph of Kiog, after having taken and burnt several of the Swedish Transport Ships returning home empty, and one laden with Corn. The two Fleets were, for some Days, on the side of each other, and fir'd several random Shot: At last both of them gave the Signal of Engagement, which lasted but a very little while, the Wind and Weather obliging the Danes to bear off, and return to the Gulph of Kiog. Yesterday the King sent Orders to his Fleet, that it should return to Sea, and endeavour to engage the Swedes, in order to prevent, if possible, the Transport of the Horse, which it is supposs'd, is not yet made.

Hannover, Oct. 7. N. S. Letters from Stralsund, of the 30th past, give an Account, that the Swedish Transports were arrived at the Isle of Rugen. On the 26th they cast Anchor near Wittau, and the next Day most of the Troops